

FPQ 2013 Online Series

Feel Safe - Teaching your child personal safety skills

Family Planning Queensland (FPQ) presents an online workshop for parents and carers of children aged 0-5 years about personal safety skills.

It is important for children to receive positive messages about their safety. Today most of us want our children to feel good about themselves. Children who acquire positive messages about their sexuality and who participate in a personal safety program that is reinforced at home are less likely to experience sexual abuse. Children are not responsible for their own safety. When adults work together to give information, build skills and provide supports, children can learn about their right to be safe in a supportive environment.

FPQ's parent and carer training will assist you to:

- Talk with your child about personal safety
- Use resources to support your child to develop personal safety skills

This online training will help you to help your child to feel safe, happy and confident.

Session details

Date: Thursday, 20 June 2013

Time: 12pm-1pm

Cost: $25.00

Limited places available

Venue: WebEx Online session*
